Thank you!

Thank You to R.B. Berkey, an author from West Michigan donated to each student in grades K-5 a hard cover copy of his first children's book The Night I Borrowed Santa's Sleigh. This is a story about Santa's reindeer- not the famous reindeer Rudolph, but all of the "forgotten reindeer." Our school library will also have a copy to read to the students for years to come!

MAP Testing begins next week!

Here are some tips that can help support your student at home to help them implement their best strategies and test-taking skills so they can perform their very best!

- Sleep- A good nights sleep is so important for anyone to perform at their maximum potential.
- Breakfast- Please make sure they eat breakfast whether at home or at school!
- Positive Attitude! Having a positive outlook can help one perform to very best of their ability.
